

Year 8 exam revision tasks

The end of year exam will check the students' knowledge and understanding of the texts we have studied, by asking questions using associated vocabulary and literary terminology. The final section will ask students to express their point of view on a particular aspect of one of the texts studied; this could be an essay on character or theme.

Section One - Vocabulary:

Five marks. Checks knowledge of texts and associated vocabulary.

In this section, students will use their knowledge of the texts to judge which answer best fits the word given, or, give an example of how a word is represented in a text they have studied. The words chosen will have been taught in class alongside the texts read, and they are also in the KS3 booklet along with definitions. The words have been chosen as they can be linked to all the texts we study at key stage three, therefore supporting students with developing their vocabulary in the context of their lesson studies. Vocabulary studied in year 7 can, therefore, be revisited and new meanings established in relation to later studies in year 8 and 9.
